MISSOULA--

After losing two games, the University of Montana women's basketball team broke into the win column with a sound 82-42 whipping of Carroll College in its season-opener tournament at Adams Fieldhouse the weekend of Dec. 9-11.

Flathead Valley Community College was the only undefeated team in the UM tournament, which also included Montana State, Seattle-Pacific University and Carroll College. Flathead Valley defeated MSU in a 73-69 overtime thriller Thursday night, then beat host Montana 77-56 Friday night and came from behind on Saturday to grab a 58-49 victory over Seattle-Pacific.

Seattle-Pacific ended the weekend with a 2-1 record after its loss to FVCC. UM was trounced 69-47 by Seattle-Pacific Thursday and Montana State lost a close 75-68 game to them Friday.

UM's next encounter will be a home game against Washington State on Jan. 7 at Adams Fieldhouse. The Grizzlies face Boise State Jan. 8.
